

Summer Reading Challenge

Hand this to your form tutor in the first week back in September. You can email this document to your form tutor, or you can print it in school. You can choose your own books or read the suggested books available to read online from our website.

Praise Point Challenge

100 praise points will be awarded for each one of the following challenges you do:

- Read a classic - a classic you have been meaning to read

Name of book: _____

- Make it personal - a book recommended by someone with great taste

Name of book: _____

- Explore a genre - a book of poetry, or a play

Name of book: _____

- Sneak in a quick read - a book you can read in a day

Name of book: _____

- Take a challenge - a book that is more than 500 pages

Name of book: _____

- Study an author - a book by your favourite author

Name of book: _____

- Walk in someone else's shoes - a memoir, biography or creative non-fiction

Name of book: _____

- Diversify your point-of-view - a book by an author of different race, ethnicity, or religion than your own

Name of book: _____

Signed by parent/carer:

Win a Book Challenge

Take a selfie or a photo of yourself reading in either an unusual place. The best photo will win a token for our book vending machine.

Include a copy of the photo and send it to Nicola.anderson@consilium-at.com

Certificate Challenge

Read the following number of books and get this signed by your parent. In the assembly in the first few weeks in September, all students who have completed the challenge will be provided with a certificate and if you achieve platinum status, you will also receive a token for the book vending machine.

Bronze – start reading a book or up to two unfinished books.

Silver – 2 completed books up to 4 completed books.

Gold – 5 completed books up to 7 completed books.

Platinum – over 7 completed books.

Write the names of your books below:

1.

2.

3.

4.

5.

6.

7.

8.

9.

10.

Signed by pupil:

Signed by parent/carer: