Historian of the Year

Who will be Washington Academy's Historian of the Year?

The history department is proud to present an amazing opportunity at Washington Academy!

Create a project piece on any topic of history you find interesting. This can be a topic we study at school or something that we don't! The piece can be presented however you like, whether it be a model version, a piece of art, poem or historical writing. Just ensure it shows your love and passion for the topic of your choice!

The winners will be judged by a panel here at Washington Academy. Once announced, you could win a FREE day trip somewhere in the U.K with a friend in summer term. Trip destination to be announced as a surprise but this will be history themed!

The first deadline will be Christmas, before the competition being relaunched for an Easter deadline.

Entries are to be given to Miss Atkinson – B005 by the 12th of December 15 places are available.
